Why Join the Chamber of Commerce?

Our Mission

To advance the commercial, industrial, civic and general interests of the area. We accomplish this by exerting positive leadership, supporting activities which improve the economic, social and physical condition and work cooperatively with other organizations that share our goals.

WHAT IS THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE?

The Les Cheneaux Islands Chamber of Commerce is a non-profit organization comprised of businesses, professionals and individuals throughout the Eastern Upper Peninsula. This organization has been in existence for more than 44 years, continually changing with the times and providing new services to our members and community.

WHO BELONGS TO THE CHAMBER?

Businesses, professionals and individuals belong to the Chamber. Membership exceeds more than 145 diverse businesses of all sizes from small home-based to manufacturing facilities. Area professionals include doctors, lawyers, dentists and accountants.

HOW MUCH DOES MEMBERSHIP COST?

There are five levels of membership:

- Associate Member - $50.00. A non-business individual wanting to support the Chamber
- Cottage industry/home crafter - $75. Artisans or home crafters making goods or services to sell.
- Non-profit - $100. Non-profit organizations.
- Small Business - $175.00 Those businesses with 1-9 employees.
- Large Business - $250.00 Those businesses with 10 or more employees.

Your Chamber membership dues support the immediate and long-term future of our community.

WHAT ARE MY OBLIGATIONS AS A MEMBER?

Your primary obligation is financial support paid through annual dues. Occasionally donations for community events and fundraisers are requested of members. Volunteer participation through committee work and community projects is always welcomed. Board positions are available to interested members. Your Chamber involvement is to whatever extent you want to make it. We welcome your ideas and leadership in Chamber projects!
